The National Democratic State Convention at Louisville.

(From the Courier-Journal.)

The Democratic State Convention Wednesday fully justified the great expectations that were entertained in advance. Its work in the nomination of the Hon. James R. Hindman, of Adams county, will give great satisfaction. Capt. Hindman was a gallant soldier of the Federal army, has occupied an honorable position at the bar, has served his State as Lieutenant Governor and acquitted himself with distinction. He is a pleasing and logical speaker, and will be heard to the advantage of the cause on the stump during the campaign.

The oratory of the occasion was of a high order. The speech of Mr. Carlisle will rank among his best efforts. The speech of Mr. Shinn, the temporary chairman, was marked by superior ability, and was extremely well received. Col. Breckinridge's address fully sustained his high reputation as an orator, which is the highest praise that can be given it. Senator Lindsey spoke with great earnestness and force, and was heard with special interest, not only on account of his great ability and high standing, but also because he was fresh from the debate upon the Tariff Bill. The Hon. A. J. Carroll, on whom devolved the duty of calling the convention to order, was extremely happy in the few remarks which he made in calling the convention to order.

Altogether it was a great convention—great in its personnel, great in its purpose, great in its utterances, great in its work, and we doubt not, it is destined to be great in its influence.

Though the actual attendance of delegates was 1,200, only 877 could vote in the convention according to the basis of representation established by the State Central Committee. The Committee on Credentials reported that 113 out of 119 counties in the state were represented, and this was verified in part when the roll of counties was called on the ballot for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. Though some of the delegates, seeing that Mr. Hindman was sure to be nominated, had left the hall, only a few counties had failed to respond when Logan county was reached and further voting was cut off by the withdrawal of Mr. Orndorff and the nomination of Mr. Hindman by acclamation.

Numerous though they were, the delegates only constituted half the people in the hall, for fully 1,200 spectators crowded the main floor, balcony and platform. Twice the number of delegates and easily ten times the number of spectators is the way this Democratic convention compared with that held at Frankfort by the silver party on the second day of last month.

The delegates from the Fourteenth judicial district, composed of Franklin, Bourbon, Scott and Woodford counties, held a meeting after the Congressional District convention, and after a stirring speech by Senator Lindsey nominated ex-Chief Justice Thomas H. Hines for Circuit Judge and the Hon. James A. Violet, of Franklin, for Commonwealth's Attorney the counties of Franklin, Anderson and Mercer renominated the Hon. W. F. Bond, of Lawrenceburg, for State Senator.

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

THERE IS NO PROFESSION, whose labors so severely tax the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The derangement of the nerve centers of the brain by over work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostration. Rev. J. P. Kester, M. D., Pastor U. B. church, London Mills, Ill., himself a physician, writes Feb. 26, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become so serious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that it seemed certain I must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerve and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 10 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
